FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
26 U.S.C. § 7206(1): Subscribing to a False Tax Return as charged in the Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Modified Plastics Inc. (MPI) is ordered to pay a fine of $70,000 and is sentenced to a term of three years probation on the following terms and conditions:

1. MPI is ordered not to commit another federal, state, or local crime during the term of probation;
2. MPI is ordered to comply with General Order 01-05, regarding defendants subject to fines;
3. MPI is required to notify the Court and probation officer immediately upon learning of:
 - (a) any material adverse change in its business or financial condition; and
 - (b) any change in the identity of its corporate officers, chief executive officer, and/or chief financial officer.
4. MPI is ordered to pay a fine of $70,000 during the term of Probation, and to pay such fine in installments of no less than $3,000 per month until the fine is paid in full;
5. MPI is ordered to keep and maintain accurate and complete records for its financial and accounting systems in accordance with customary and accepted accounting principles appropriate to a close corporation;
6. MPI is ordered to submit to as many as four unannounced inspections of its premises and books and records, at the discretion of the Probation Officer, who may be accompanied by other representatives or agents of the United States government, including law enforcement and regulatory agencies. In addition, during the period of probation, MPI is ordered to submit to any and all inspections of its books and records requested by any agent of any federal law enforcement agency. The books and records subject to inspection include, but need not be limited to:
 - (I) MPI's accounting systems (including its general ledger, and any and all other financial records

USA vs. MODIFIED PLASTICS, INC.Docket No.: SACR 11-0139-DOC

maintained by MPI);

- (II) Any and all records, logs, and other writings kept or maintained by MPI, in its usual course of business, in order to comply with federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including but not limited to environmental laws and regulations, during the period of probation; and
- (III) Any and all agendas, corporate minutes, and other writings maintained by MPI's Board of Directors in its usual course of business during the period of probation.

MPI is ordered to fully cooperate with the Probation Office and/or law enforcement agents in connection with the above inspections, including by using its best efforts to facilitate and permit the questioning and interviewing of knowledgeable individuals within the organization.

7. Within ten days, MPI is ordered to inform all of its officers, directors, and managerial level employees of the following:

- (a) the terms and conditions of probation ordered by the Court;
- (b) that all officers, directors, and managerial employees are instructed by MPI to cooperate with MPI's compliance with the forgoing terms and conditions; and
- (c) that any conduct by any officer, director, and/or managerial employee which, in MPI's opinion, is intended to hinder, impede, or obstruct MPI's compliance with the foregoing conditions will be grounds for discipline, including possible immediate termination and/or removal from MPI.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

USA vs. MODIFIED PLASTICS, INC.Docket No.: SACR 11-0139-DOC

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

USA vs. MODIFIED PLASTICS, INC.Docket No.: SACR 11-0139-DOC

☒ The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure; and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
